

Health for Life

Holly Hill School was part of the Health for Life in primary schools programme 2012. The programme supports activities that engage pupils, staff and families in growing food, healthy eating, cooking and physical activity.